Sounds like you won't have time to experience circadian disruption. Say hi to everyone for me ... Sorry I won't see you this time.

No, I am invited by Phil Landrigan to speak at their Annual Scientific Meeting on Diesel, Transportation, Occupational Exposures, and Health
April 5, 2013, Mount Sinai School of Medicine.
Will be lively with Boffetta, Greenbaum, Howard and more- and will be on my way back again Saturday,
Kurt

Looks like spam to me.

If you're coming to AACR, let's get together. Call my cell Personal Phone / Ex. 6 when you can. It's a local call from DC.

Dear Vincent

Not sure if this is spam?
Waiting at JFK immigration

Warmest regards

Kurt

Subject: Mathematica Data Call--response required

Dear Vincent,

In the next few days, you will receive a Data Call from iSDP requesting a response if you or your team is planning to use Mathematica for fiscal year 2014.

If you would like to use Mathematica, you will need to answer the iSDP's Data Call promptly. Those answering the Data Call will receive a special price of $1,485 for Mathematica. If you do not answer the Data Call, you will have to purchase Mathematica at the full list price.

In addition, if your group will be using Wolfram SystemModeler for your modeling and simulation work, please remember to add this request to the Data Call. Pricing and additional information for SystemModeler can be found on the iSDP Products page:
